

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1896.

NO. 89

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. R. H. Batson is at present minus a valuable horse. It has either strayed off or been stolen.

—Miss Bessie Marksbury entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denman, of Nicholasville, on Thursday.

—The board of trustees have recently elected a new town marshal. Mr. A. T. Anderson was chosen for the place by the board.

—Rev. J. M. Nelson, of Iowa, preached Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Presbyterian church to appreciative audiences.

—Marriage license was granted this week by County Clerk Duncan to E. J. Creech to wed Miss Mollie Henry. Both are residents of this county.

—This has been observed here as the week of prayer by most of our churches. The Presbyterians, Methodists and Baptists are holding nightly services.

—Elder Wm. P. Walden joined Mr. Wm. Moberly and Miss Nannie Mitchell, of Stone, in the holy bonds of wedlock on Tuesday, in a most impressive manner.

—Miss Amanda Anderson is to begin teaching a subscription school at the Mason school-house near Marksbury on Feb. 1st. She is a good teacher and we wish her much success.

—Miss Sallie Elkin entertained in honor of Miss Margaret Murphy. Twelve of Miss Elkin's lady friends were invited to meet Miss Murphy at the pretty home, "Maples," of Capt. T. A. Elkin.

—The following ones can be classed upon the sick list: Elder George Gwynn, Mrs. Margaret Dunn, Mrs. E. L. Owsley, Mrs. H. A. B. Marksbury, Mrs. Charles Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Brown, Miss Eliza Lusk and others.

—To-night Schubert's Symphony Concert will give one of their entertainments at the court house. As they come so very highly recommended and ours is a music loving people, they will likely have a large audience to greet them.

—On Monday, William V. Batson, nephew of Mr. R. H. Batson, was driving a horse of Mr. Jesse Fox's, when it stumbled and fell upon him, bruising him considerably and spraining his ankle very severely. He will be disabled from the sprain for some days.

—Mr. James I. Hamilton has leased the Ray property on Lexington street and on Wednesday moved into it. Mr. William Hughes and family have just moved into the house vacated by Mr. Hamilton and wife. Miss Malinda Romans has moved into her cottage on Richmond street. Mr. Zane and family, who occupied the Romans house, have rented and moved to the house known as the male academy residence on Depot street.

—A telegram bearing the sad intelligence of the fatal illness of Mrs. John M. Tillet, of Lexington, was received here Wednesday. After an illness of three weeks of neuralgia, death relieved her of her suffering. Mrs. Tillet and family were residents of Lancaster for a number of years and she will be remembered by Lancaster citizens as an estimable Christian woman and a most devoted member of the Baptist church. Mrs. Tillet was Miss Addie Clark, of Fayette. The deceased leaves two daughters to mourn the death of a most devoted mother, besides other relatives and friends. Truly can it be said that death loves a smiling mark.

—Mr. William Greenleaf and wife, of St. Louis, Mo., are the guests of Mrs. Lucinda Greenleaf. Dr. I. S. Bardette, of Crab Orchard, was the guest Wednesday of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Batson. Mrs. Lizzie Jennings Douglass, of Lebanon Junction, is in the city visiting her niece, Mr. Wm. Romans, and family. Miss Florence Harris has returned from a visit to her friend, Miss Pearl Holcombe, at Louisville. Miss Ella May Saunders, of Livingston, Miss Reynolds, of Crab Orchard, and Miss Jones, of Buckeye, were all guests this week of Capt. Dillon and wife. Miss Gertrude Lingenfelter has returned to school at Georgetown. Mrs. Susan West, of Perryville, is the guest of Mrs. H. A. B. Marksbury and family. Miss Mary Miller is at home from a protracted visit to her aunt, Mr. W. S. Miller, of Knoxville. Mr. Malcolm Tillet and sister, Miss Martha, attended the funeral of Mrs. John Tillet at Lexington this week. Miss Callie Stone, of Burgin, is a visitor of her friend, Miss Nellie Dillon.

The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette appeared in the auditorium of the Christian church last Friday evening, under the auspices of the aid society of that church. The varied program was well executed and the applause that greeted the performers demonstrated that the Schubert Club was appreciated by the Georgetown lovers of music. The instrumental and vocal music and recitations were exceedingly fine. The "star" of the evening was Master Tommy Parcell, a youthful prodigy. This little fellow gave a brilliant selection on the violin, also songs and recitations. —Georgetown Times.

Saturday, Jan. 11, Walton's Opera House.

—LaGrange suffered a $12,000 fire which started in Dick Bros. grocery.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Miss Bulah VanAradale entertained her Sunday school class a few nights ago at tea. The boys enjoyed the evening hugely.

—It is only fair to say that three colored boys who were charged with exploding a dynamite bomb at the Presbyterian church gate, Geo. Rife, Geo. Lee and Frank Armstrong, were acquitted on trial.

—The officers of the Masonic Lodge for the new year are W. W. Bruce, W. M.; John Ellis, S. W.; F. B. Twidwell, J. W.; G. M. Givens, S. D.; Joe Lisle, J. D.; L. B. Adams, secy.; James Fynn, treas.; J. P. Goode, tyler.

—It is reported that among the changes of the new year, F. B. Twidwell expects to close out his grocery stock and confine his attention exclusively to drugs, while Isaac Steele intends to wind up his stock of drugs and cease to keep them.

—Mr. James Powell showed us the other day quite a curiosity in the shape of an old letter received by his grandfather in the year 1831. It was directed as follows: "Lindsay Powell, Esq., Hanging Fork, P. O., postage 12 1/2c." It was mailed at Louisville and the above postage was required to bring it here.

—It has been announced that the Rev. Ben Helm purposed holding a protracted meeting here early in this month, possibly beginning next week. Elders Pinckerton and Williams are observing the week of prayer with services every night this week. The Presbyterian congregation is also joining with them in these laudable services. On this account the Presbyterian prayer meeting, on Wednesday night, was omitted this week, but may be expected next week at the usual hour.

—Last Saturday, Mrs. Jesse Rife entertained a few friends at dinner at her husband's hospitable home in the country. As a matter of course Mrs. Rife entertained elegantly and those present greatly enjoyed being there. Monday she gave a party in honor of her niece who is visiting her, Miss Sue Merriman. Miss Merriman is a popular and accomplished young lady and the party was largely attended, those going from town expressing themselves as highly delighted with the occasion. Sorry we were not furnished with a list of the ladies and gentlemen present.

—Mrs. Mary Brown and Miss Nannie were pleasantly surprised a few days ago by some 20 of their lady friends gathering in to spend the day with them and bringing well filled baskets left enough to remind granny and Miss Nannie for some time of their visit. They were greatly appreciative both of the ladies visit and their nice donation. The ladies were: Mesdames John Reid, John Baughman, John Sandidge, Uriah Dunn, McCarty, L. B. Adams, J. D. Newburn, James Taylor, F. M. Yowell, C. C. VanAradale, Jesse Huston and Misses Alice Cabbell and Ellen Powers.

—Last week the Misses Reid gave a li-lac tea in honor of the Misses Cook and Whittington. It was an elegant affair and largely attended. The decorations were profuse and lovely, being prevailingly lilac. The menu on lilac paper tied with lilac ribbon was a favor of the supper. It was as follows: Grapes, pineapple, blue points, wafers, ham, croquettes, sandwiches, chicken a la Tartare, egg salad, Maryland biscuit, jelly, Roman punch, ices, cake, celery salad, Welsh rarebit, coffee, chocolate, wafers, celery, olives, bon-bons. Those present were: Misses Jennie McKinney, Lucy Alcorn, Bernette Pinkerton, Mary Lusk, Lou Hocker, Flora Whittington, Margaret Bennett, and the Misses Cook, Gentlemen, Jas. Allen, J. B. Cook, June Hocker, W. Hocker, W. S. Drye, F. B. Twidwell, S. Lusk, W. S. Huffman.

—Ed White was recently the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. B. Adams. His sister, Miss Mattie, is now visiting the family. Our thanks are due Mr. Sam Lusk for the items he gathered for us this week. Howard Hopper visited his sister, Mrs. Bruce last week. He left here for Louisville to enter the Hospital College of Medicine. We had Billy Dinwiddie's name on our note book, but can not now remember what he has done. It wouldn't be far from right, we guess, to say on a venture that he had been to Harrodsburg to visit his dear aunt. Mrs. Patsey Green has been very sick with flux the last week, but her friends will be gratified to learn that she has greatly improved. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Thomson expect to move to Danville the 1st of February and make that place their future home.

Capt. Joe Huffman has been sick for several days. Mrs. Isaac Steele has been dangerously ill for a week past with the grippe, but is now convalescent. Geo. Ryan has resigned his position with Isaac Steele. Mr. Walter Hopper, representing the Prudential Insurance Co. at Richmond, Ind., and Miss Fannie Hopper, of Perryville, visited relatives here this week. It is with regret that we lose the Misses Cook and feel that Stanford society has made a great gain as no more popular or winning girls grace any community. Jas. Danlap, of Grant county, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. R. Blaine. Prof. Walker Hunn, of Columbia, and Miss Fannie Hynn, of Shelby

City, are also visiting Mrs. Blaine, who is their grand-mother.

—The sad news was received here last Tuesday that on the day before at Longview, Ala., Mr. Hugh Logan had died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chloe Adams. Mr. Logan's death while a surprise was not unexpected altogether, as he has been in failing health for some time past, having been afflicted with a fatty degeneration of the heart. Mrs. Logan and Miss Mack were present with him when he died. He was a man of quiet habits and greatly respected, while he was idolized by his family to whom his death comes as a crushing blow. When this letter was mailed Wednesday morning it was understood that his remains would be here that night and that he would be buried in the cemetery here on Thursday. He had spent several winters in the South at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Adams, overseeing some lumber interests for Mr. Adams, but this winter his health failed rapidly, so much so in fact, that his condition soon became such that it was considered dangerous for him to attempt to come home. He was a member of the Presbyterian church here for many years and died in that communion.

ON A LOCAL NATURE.

—Joseph L. Kenney, 70, died at Danville.

—Ed McFartridge, one of Mercer's most prominent farmers, died very suddenly.

—A bill has been introduced in Congress to pay Mrs. Green Clay Smith a pension of $60 per month.

—S. P. Robinson's dry goods store at Douglassville, Mercer county, burned; loss $10,000, insurance $4,000.

—R. C. Ford, late democratic candidate for State treasurer, has been elected president of the First National Bank of Pineville.

—The Bell circuit court, the January term of which opened Monday, has nearly 700 civil and over 200 criminal cases on its docket.

—The banks have declared their usual semi-annual dividends with the exception of Madison National which will not report until April. The Second National declared a four per cent dividend; Richmond National three per cent, and Farmers National four per cent.—Pantagraph.

—A collision occurred on the C. S. railway, about one mile north of Somerset, in which one life was lost and, two cabooses, one oil tank and stock car completely demolished. A freight train broke in two and a work train ran into it. Charley Slaughter, age 14, who was with a party of hunters, was killed. The wreckage caught fire and seven hounds were cremated. Several trainmen were considerably bruised.

WILLOW GROVE.

—Dr. J. P. Flannigan, Jr., of Bosworth, Mo., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Bettie Irvine.

—Mr. L. S. Logan has rented his farm to his brother, Dave Logan, and is now a "Commercial Tourist."

—Mr. Herbert Cook and Miss Minnie Myers have returned from an extended visit to friends in Lexington.

—J. Logan Lewis left last week for Kimberlin Heights, Tenn., where he goes to prepare himself for the ministry.

—Mr. Albert Smith began house-keeping the 1st of January. He is now snugly ensconced in his palatial residence.

—Dr. Brown, of Hustonville, was called in last week to attend Mrs. Anne Gastineau, who is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

—Mr. W. T. Ward, having rented his farm to Mr. James Gastineau, is now a resident of Fayette county. He was a kind neighbor, a conscientious Christian and a useful citizen, and will be much missed by his many friends in this section.

MISS NORA MORELAND, OF STANFORD.

The little beauty whose picture is given above is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moreland, of this city. She is just budding into young womanhood and gives promise of taking rank with the handsomest girls in the State. She is a decided blonde and in addition to her other charms, is possessed of a sweet voice, which she uses in song most effectively. Her gifts are inherited from her mother, who is a very handsome woman and who fairly dotes upon her.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Mr. L. D. Denham is in Louisville buying a stock of goods.

—Hon. K. D. Perkins has about completed his new residence.

—The office of the Allen Lumber Co., located at Pleasant View, burned last week.

—The Kentucky Lumber Co. saw mill will be completed in a few days and ready for work.

—Mr. L. D. Denham is going to give up his law practice and go into the mercantile business.

—Circuit court will begin next Monday with 297 commonwealth, 208 ordinary and 207 equity cases on the docket.

—The drug firm of Wilson & Freeman has dissolved and the business is now run in the name of J. L. Freeman & Co.

—Miss Nettie Smith, of London, spent several days with the Misses Hill. Mr. Levi Mahan has returned from Louisville.

—Rev. O. Inger, the new pastor of the Congregational church, has moved his family here and will occupy the Tupper property.

—Miss Ruby Gatlin entertained her young friends Friday evening. Hon. R. D. Hill was at Oakdale Tuesday on legal business.

—The Misses Hill elegantly entertained the young people of the town Tuesday evening in honor of their visitor, Miss Nettie Smith. There was a large crowd present and every one had a most enjoyable time.

—The Williamsburg Institute and Academy have the largest attendance they have ever had at the opening and more students are coming in all the time. It is almost impossible for students to get places to board. The educational wave seems to be sweeping over this country with great rapidity and the next generation will not find many who can't read and write. Many students are young men who work hard on farms during the remainder of the year and put in the winter months cultivating the mind.

HUBBLE.

—W. H. Bland has moved to C. P. Underwood's house.

—Bring on your old roosters and geese and settle your accounts.

—John Blanks had a pet pig to go out on the ice and falling in, didn't show up any more.

—Mrs. Susan Menefee is thinking of moving to Lancaster. She has rented a part of her farm near here to George Lawson.

—Mrs. S. Danbar sold 514 pounds of butter from two cows in 1895, after supplying her table with four in the family, at 20 and 25c per lb.

—Mrs. Sarah Eobanks has gone to Illinois to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Miller. Dr. Carpenter was called to see Uncle Green Bright a day or so ago, but he is thought to be some better now.

—Jack Cooley, a little boy visiting Ed Miner, went to the barn and began to play with the cutting box. He thrust his hand into it and ground his fingers up very badly. Dr. Kinnaird dressed the hand and thinks he will have to amputate one or two of his fingers.
